

Delahay of Talbot county, the children of Henry Delahay and Susan Millington.

And the bill entitled, an act to authorise Mary C. Spence of Baltimore county, to sell or lease and convey the real estate of Robert T. Spence, severally endorsed, 'will pass.'

Mr. Heath, reported favourably upon the bill entitled, an act to incorporate the Franklin Improving company of Baltimore; the said bill was then read the second and third time by special order, passed, and sent to the house of delegates.

The clerk of the house of delegates delivered the following messages which were read.

By the House of Delegates, March 10th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the Senate.

The honorable James W. McCulloh having resigned his station as speaker of this house, we have chosen the honorable John G. Chapman to fill the vacancy occasioned by his resignation.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, Clerk.

By the House of Delegates, March 9th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received the resolution from your house in favour of Thomas Ringgold of Queen Ann's county, and are of opinion, that said resolution proposes to effect the revenue of the state. This house, therefore think, that such a measure cannot constitutionally originate in the senate.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, Clerk.

By the House of Delegates, March 10th, 1827.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We have received your message concurring with us, to invite his excellency the Governor this afternoon, to sign the engrossed bills; since which the joint committee appointed to report what bills are assentially necessary to be passed, have made their report, and recommend that the session be closed on Monday evening next.—We therefore with the concurrence of your honorable body, propose to invite his excellency the governor on the afternoon of that day at 4 o'clock to sign the laws, and have appointed Messrs. Banning and Hawkins to join such gentlemen as it may be the pleasure of your house to nominate, to tender the invitation to his excellency.

By order,

Gideon Pearce, Clerk.
